HOW TO QUALIFY

Education and Experience Requirements: By the last day of the Application Period, you must meet the following requirements:

1. Four years of full-time satisfactory experience as a journey-level mechanic (i.e., a fully trained, knowledgeable, experienced, proficient, and competent mechanic) repairing passenger automobiles, trucks, buses, or aircrafts; or
2. Three years of full-time satisfactory experience at the journey-level as described in paragraph “1” above, plus the completion of one of the following listed below before obtaining your journey-level experience:
 - A. Two years of full-time satisfactory experience as a mechanic’s helper, apprentice or trainee performing or assisting in the work described above; or
 - B. Graduation from a recognized trade school or technical school with a major course of study in automotive mechanics or a closely related field, totaling 600 hours; or
 - C. Graduation from a vocational high school with a major course of study in automotive mechanics, or a closely related field; or
 - D. Graduation from an accredited college or university with an associate’s degree or higher with a major course of study in automotive mechanics or a closely related field.

Application Period Opened: October 1, 2023

If you have qualifying part-time experience, it will be credited on a prorated basis.

The following types of experience are not acceptable: auto body and fender repair; auto or truck assembly; dealership make-ready repair; fuel, oil and lube servicing; vehicle inspection; exclusive specialty replacement shop work, such as tire replacement, replacement of exhaust parts (muffler), glass, climate control parts, etc.; and salvage and junkyard extraction.

The vocational high school, technical school, or trade school must be approved by a State's Department of Education or a recognized accrediting organization. The college or university must be accredited by regional, national, professional or specialized agencies recognized as accrediting bodies by the U.S. Secretary of Education, and by the Council for Higher Education Accreditation (CHEA).

Test Site Education and Experience Response Form: On the date of the multiple-choice test, you will be required to document that you met the education and experience requirements by the end of the application period for this examination. You may also be required to complete additional forms regarding the education and experience requirements at the time of appointment. You will be given the multiple-choice test before we verify your qualifications. You are responsible for determining whether you meet the qualification requirements for this examination prior to submitting your application. If you are marked "Not Qualified," your application fee will not be refunded, and you will not receive a score.

Foreign Education Fact Sheet (required only if you need credit for your foreign education for this examination): If you were educated outside the United States, you must have your foreign education evaluated to determine its equivalence to education obtained in the United States. The services that are approved to make this evaluation, as well as instructions on how to submit this evaluation are listed in the Foreign Education Fact Sheet, which will be attached to this Notice of Examination during the application period. When you contact the evaluation service, ask for a "document-by-document" (general) evaluation of your foreign education. Your foreign education evaluation must be submitted directly to NYC Transit's Examinations Unit by the service completing the evaluation. Foreign education evaluations received directly from applicants will not be accepted. You may also visit our website at http://web.mta.info/nyct/hr/forms_instructions.htm to access the Foreign Education Fact Sheet.

Note: If you have earned a higher-level degree in the United States that supersedes the level and type of education required to meet the qualification requirements, you do not need to submit a foreign education evaluation. However, you must indicate that you have completed the higher-level degree in the United States; proof of acceptance into an academic program or school is not sufficient to determine satisfactory equivalency.

THE TEST

You will be given a qualifying multiple-choice test and a competitive practical skills test. A score of at least 70% is required to pass the qualifying multiple-choice test and the competitive practical skills test. Only those who meet the qualifying education and experience requirements and pass the qualifying multiple-choice test will be scheduled to take the competitive practical skills test. Your score on the competitive practical skills test will be used to determine your place on the eligible list.

You will be scheduled to take the multiple-choice test on one of the dates listed in the above "Test Date" box. You will be assigned to a test date and location, and you cannot request that your scheduled test date or location be changed, unless you meet the conditions in the "Special Test Accommodations" subsection below.

Application Period Opened: October 1, 2023

Veterans' or Disabled Veterans' Credit will be granted only to eligible passing candidates who request that they be applied. Veterans' or Disabled Veterans' Credit should be requested at the time of application but must be requested before the date the eligible list is established. Claims for Veterans' or Disabled Veterans' Credit cannot be made once the eligible list is established.

The multiple-choice and practical skills tests may measure your knowledge, skills and abilities in the following and other related areas:

- Automotive Theory: Knowledge of maintenance, troubleshooting and repair of buses, automobiles and trucks, including their engines, transmissions, running gears, air-conditioning, and electrical and mechanical accessories, utilizing safe work practices
 - Example: Using proper automotive maintenance techniques to maintain a bus
- Tool Usage: Ability to properly select and safely use materials, machinery and tools of the trade
 - Example: Using a screwdriver to remove a screw
- Schematics: Ability to read and interpret specifications and drawings
 - Example: Using a circuit schematic to trace the circuit you are working on
- Mathematical Calculations: Ability to perform mathematical calculations
 - Example: Performing a calculation to determine the length of wire needed for a task
- Vehicle Component Maintenance: Ability to install, repair, and adjust vehicle components utilizing safe work practices
 - Example: Performing a wheel alignment
- Testing Devices: Ability to properly and safely troubleshoot and repair electrical components using meters and other equipment
 - Example: Using a multimeter to determine if a fuse is blown

HOW TO OBTAIN AN APPLICATION

During the application period, you may apply online for this examination (see the Online Applications sub-section below). Or, if you are unable to apply online, you may obtain an electronic copy of the mail-in application package for this examination by emailing a request to examsunit@nyct.com during the application period. The MTA Exam Information Center, located in the lobby of 180 Livingston Street, Brooklyn, NY 11201, is currently closed. If you believe you have a special circumstance (e.g., a disability, military duty) that prevents you from applying as instructed below, please refer to the Special Circumstances Guide referenced in the "Special Test Accommodations" subsection below.

HOW TO SUBMIT AN APPLICATION

You must submit an application during the application period, and applications will not be accepted in person. Applicants who apply online and wish to request a Fee Waiver must only complete the Online Applications Steps 1 through 4 below.

Online Applications:

1. If you are not an active MTA employee, apply using www.mymta.info/exams by the last day of the application period (Active MTA employees can apply using the MTA Business Service Center (BSC) employee portal at www.mymta.info). Note: The application system may not function properly with mobile devices or tablets. For best results when applying, please use the latest version of Microsoft Edge, open a new window, and avoid having multiple tabs open in the same window.
2. To apply, log into your existing account, or create an account if you do not yet have one.
3. Follow the steps to submit an application.
4. A confirmation number will appear on the same page after submitting your application (Save this number for future reference).

READ CAREFULLY AND SAVE FOR FUTURE REFERENCE

Application Period Opened: October 1, 2023

IMPORTANT: If you are requesting a fee waiver, you should not complete Steps 5, 6, or 7 below. Instead, by November 29, 2023, you must submit documentation supporting your fee waiver request by mail to Bus Maintainer - Group B, Exam No. 4611, MTA NYC Transit, 180 Livingston Street, Room 4070, Brooklyn, NY 11201. You must include your full name, last 4 digits of your Social Security Number (SSN), your Applicant ID Number (if known), your online application confirmation number, and the exam title and number with your request. For fee waiver request documentation requirements, please refer to the Fee Waiver Request Guide, which is accessible online at http://web.mta.info/nyct/hr/forms_instructions.htm and will be attached to this Notice of Examination during the application period.

5. Below the confirmation number, a Pay Examination Fee button will appear for you to click to open the payment page.
6. A major credit card or a bank card associated with a bank account must be used when paying the application fee, and this fee will appear on your credit or bank card statement as “MTA NYCT Exam Fee.” Note: Disputing the application fee could result in removal from this examination, and it might affect your ability to apply online for any future examinations.
7. You will be sent a confirmation email after you submit payment for the application fee (Save this email for future reference).

Note: If you have trouble paying the application fee after submitting your online application, please visit http://web.mta.info/nyct/hr/forms_instructions.htm to access the Online Payment Tutorial.

IMPORTANT: Your application submission confirms that you have read this Notice of Examination, including any dates and the requirements.

Application Fee: This fee is generally not refundable. Under special circumstances, you may be entitled to a refund. Please refer to the Department of Citywide Administrative Services (“DCAS”) General Exam Regulation E.3.4 to determine if you are entitled to a refund. Please visit http://web.mta.info/nyct/hr/forms_instructions.htm to access the DCAS General Exam Regulations online. Application fee refund requests, along with any relevant supporting documentation, should be emailed to examsmakeups@nyct.com or mailed to the address in the “Correspondence” section below.

Special Test Accommodations: If you plan to request an alternate test date due to your religious observance or special test accommodations due to disability, please follow the instructions included in the Special Circumstances Guide, which is accessible online at http://web.mta.info/nyct/hr/forms_instructions.htm and will be attached to this Notice of Examination during the application period. An alternate test date due to religious observance must be requested no later than 15 days prior to the date on which the multiple choice testing is expected to begin. Special test accommodations due to disability must be requested no later than 30 days prior to the date on which the multiple choice testing is expected to begin.

Make-Up Tests: You may apply for a make-up test if you cannot take the multiple-choice and practical skills tests as scheduled for any of the following reasons:

1. Compulsory attendance before a public body; or
2. On-the-job injury or illness caused by municipal employment where you are an officer or employee of the City; or
3. Absence from the test within one week after the death of a spouse, domestic partner, parent, sibling, child, or child of a domestic partner where you are an officer or employee of the City; or
4. Absence due to ordered military duty; or
5. A clear error for which MTA New York City Transit is responsible; or
