ELIGIBILITY TO TAKE EXAMINATION

This examination is open to each employee of MTA New York City Transit who on the first date of the practical skills test:

1. Is permanently (not provisionally) employed in or appears on a Preferred List (see Note, below) for the eligible title of Transit Electrical Helper in Lighting Maintenance; or
2. Is or has been employed in the non-competitive title of Transit Electrical Apprentice in Lighting Maintenance and has satisfactorily completed the 3-year Transit Electrical Apprentice program in Lighting Maintenance; and
3. Is not otherwise ineligible.

(Note: A "Preferred List" is a civil service list which is only for certain former permanent incumbents of the eligible title who have rehiring rights.)

This examination is also open to employees who were appointed to an eligible title pursuant to New York State Civil Service Law, section 55-a, and who meet all other eligibility requirements.

You are responsible for determining whether you meet the eligibility requirements for this examination prior to submitting the Application. If you do not know if you are eligible, check with your department's Human Resources representative. You may be given the test before we verify your eligibility. If you are marked "Not Eligible," your application fee will not be refunded, and you will not receive a score.

This examination is not open to employees of MaBSTOA or MTA Bus Company, or to employees of MTA agencies other than MTA New York City Transit.

SELECTIVE CERTIFICATIONS

Selective Certification for a Class A or Class B Commercial Driver License: If you have a Class A or Class B Commercial Driver License (CDL) valid in the state of New York, you may be considered for promotion to a position through a process called Selective Certification. If you qualify for Selective Certification, you may be given preferred consideration for positions requiring this license. If you are promoted through Selective Certification, you may be given preferred consideration for positions requiring this license. If you are promoted through Selective Certification, you must maintain this license for the duration of your employment in this title. If you have the Class A or Class B Commercial Driver License (CDL) valid in the State of New York, follow the instructions given to you on the date of the practical skills test to indicate your interest in such Selective Certification. Your license will be checked at the time of promotion.

The above Selective Certification requirements may be met at any time during the duration of the list. If you meet this requirement at some future date, please submit a request by mail to the address in the correspondence section below. Please include the examination title and number, your social security number, and the Selective Certification you are requesting in your correspondence.

THE TEST

You will be given a competitive practical skills test. A score of at least 70% is required to pass this test.

You will be scheduled to take the test on a date indicated in the above "Test Date" box. You will be assigned to a test date and location, and you cannot request that your scheduled test date or location be changed, unless you meet the conditions in the "Special Test Accommodations" subsection below.

Your score on this competitive practical skills test will determine 85% of your final score. Your seniority will determine the remaining 15%. You must pass the competitive practical skills test to have your seniority credited. Your seniority score will be 70 plus ½ point for each three months of completed, continuous service with an agency under the jurisdiction of the Commissioner, Department of Citywide Administrative Services, in permanent competitive or non-competitive class titles. Your service will be credited through the first date of the competitive practical skills test, up to a maximum of 15 years. Time served prior to a break in service of more than one year will not be credited.

THE TEST RESULTS

If you pass the competitive practical skills test and are marked eligible, your name will be placed in final score order on an eligible list and you will be given a list number. You will be notified by mail of your test results. If you meet all requirements and conditions, you will be considered for promotion when your name is reached on the eligible list.

REQUIREMENTS TO BE PROMOTED

Probation Completed: At the time of promotion, you must have completed your probationary period in one of the eligible titles indicated in the above "Eligibility to Take Examination" section.

Driver License Requirement: At the time of promotion, you must have a motor vehicle driver license valid in the State of New York. If you have serious moving violations, a license suspension or an accident record, you may be disqualified. You must obtain a Learner Permit for a Class B Commercial Driver License (CDL) within 90 days of promotion. You must obtain a Class B CDL, valid in the state of New York to satisfactorily complete the probationary period. The Class B CDL may not have any restrictions which would preclude the performance of the duties of a Light Maintainer, and must be maintained for the duration of your employment in the title.

Commercial Motor Vehicle Driving Experience in the Military or New York National Guard: If you are an active member or former member (discharged in the past year) of the military or New York National Guard and have experience driving a Commercial Motor Vehicle in the military or New York National Guard, you may be eligible for a waiver of the New York State commercial driving skills test through the New York State Department of Motor Vehicles. If you believe that you may be eligible for this waiver, you must apply for the waiver through the New York State Department of Motor Vehicles.

Medical Requirement: Medical guidelines have been established for the position of Light Maintainer. Candidates will be examined to determine whether they can perform the essential functions of the position. Where appropriate, a reasonable accommodation will be provided for a person with a disability to enable such person to perform the essential functions of the job.

Drug Screening Requirement: You must pass a drug screening in order to be promoted, and if promoted, you will be subject to random drug and alcohol tests for the duration of your employment. Additionally, if you have tested positive on a drug or alcohol test or had a refusal to test during pre-employment or while employed by a Federal DOT-regulated employer during the applicable period, you must have completed the Substance Abuse Professional (SAP) evaluation, referral and education/treatment process required by federal law in order to be promoted to this safety-sensitive position.

ADDITIONAL INFORMATION

Training: You may be required to undergo a formalized training course during your probationary period. Failure to successfully complete the training course may result in termination or being returned to your previously held permanent title.

Probationary Period: You will be required to complete a probationary period. If you do not successfully complete the probationary period, you may be terminated or returned to your previously held permanent title.

PENALTY FOR MISREPRESENTATION

Any intentional misrepresentation on the application or examination may result in disqualification, even after promotion, and may result in criminal prosecution.

The General Examination Regulations of the Department of Citywide Administrative Services apply to this examination, are part of this Notice of Examination, and they are accessible through our website at
